Dear Sir

I am writing primarily to support the application of J. Beetham. He will I am sure be an asset to Hall. He is very sound in his 'academics' & very useful in the sports. In character he is extremely sound & will be the cause of no trouble. I know him very well & am quite confident that you will like him — although his speech is decidedly north country. He hoped to go to Cambridge but failed to secure enough Scholarships. He applied to St. Anselm's on my advice but didn't realise that I had been there & so omitted to give my name as a reference.

For you I am glad to surmise that you are well & happy, vigorous; for myself I am very wearied of searching a post & shall enter the first Elementary Post that I can secure. Also I shall be glad when I find one. — For that,

ironically enough, is eluding me.

Yours sincerely
Edward Graham.

May forgive this scrappy note but I am in a ~~far~~ far from expansive frame of mind.

A. A. C. Burton, M.A.,

Headmaster.

Dear Sir, In reply to your enquiry about Jack Beetham:-

(1) Intellectually he is good especially in his special subject Maths - in which he is certain to get a Second & probably a First - he is certainly the best mathematician we have turned out for 30 years.

(2) Athletically & socially: above the average in both: a member of the School First Elevens (Cricket (captain) & football) & a good tennis player; of good presence & physique & one who will take his full share in the corporate life of the institution he joins

(3) In character he is quite sound.

His conduct here & his attitude to his masters were exemplary. He was Captain & Head Boy of the School - a sufficient proof of the high regard we have for him.

I hope this will be helpful.

Yours sincerely

A. A. C. Burton Headmaster

Dear Sir,

I have known Mr. Jack Beetham for upwards of eight years and have every confidence in speaking highly of him. In intellectual power of a mathematical nature he is distinctly above average abilities (he ought to carry off a First in Hons. Maths.) and he has manifested as Captain ^{of the School & member} of the First Eleven in Association Football, a very pleasing personality and social usefulness. I have no doubt he would be an acquisition to the Hall, and would highly value its privileges.

I am,

Yours faithfully,

W. Howarth
